HOW TO STUDY THE BIBLE

As you prepare to study God's Word, take a moment to stop, take a deep breath, and ask God to speak to you through His Word. This little moment of preparation reminds us that reading the Bible is a sacred act in which we invite God to speak to us.

1. Read

As you read through the passage, make a note of anything that pops out to you or raises a question in you. To get more out of it, read through the passage once or twice more, this time thinking about what stands out in this passage and what impression it leaves on you. Reading out loud can be helpful too, as it can help you understand what you're reading and help you process each verse of the passage. Stop here or challenge yourself to take it one step further and Reflect

2. Reflect

As you reflect on the passage, try thinking through these two questions:

- 1) What truth does God want me to know?

Regarding Old Testament narratives:

- How does this narrative point me to Jesus and/or God's redemptive work in history?

- 2) What does this passage reveal to me about people?

Regarding Old Testament narratives:

- Does this narrative provide a positive or negative example?

Stop here or challenge yourself to take it one step further and Respond

3. Respond

Every part of Scripture is inspired by God Himself, and a message so perfect and powerful demands a response from us.

So, in light of the truth you've just read, consider these two questions:

- 1) Based on this passage, how does God want me to live?

Regarding Old Testament narratives:

- Is there a negative example to warn me of?
- Is there a positive example to follow?
- How does God's redemptive work in the story move me to follow Him more closely today?

- 2) What's this passage calling me to pray for today?

We don't expect that our lives will be radically changed every time we read our Bible. However, we do know that we are becoming more faithful followers of Christ. This is a discipline that will slowly transform us as we consistently study God's Word.
